WHAT WE DO FOR NOTHING .- A viotim in the tread-mill profession of journalism, writes thusly, and those who imagine that the journalist's path is made up of roses, should read : He must be at his post day and night in order that the public may be promptly and fully informed of what is going on, not only in the shops and were houses of his patrons, not only in his own city or State, but everywhere. Each issue must be a daily chapter of the world's chronicles. A true journal must also be a reflex of the enlightened public opinion of the world, a defender of what is just, a vindicator of what is honorab'e, an adviser, champion and friend of all who aim at good ends through proper means. Hence it happens that the best of all the sight his work of the journalist is that which he does for nothing. If any useful public enterprise is prejected, whether originating with him or the fruit of some speculative undertaking, the aid of newspapers is straightway solicited.

He does more gratuitous work than men of any other vocation. He is the servant of the public, and must bend his shoulder to any load. He is the ally of all who are engaged in public schemes, and must give his service without rations, and generally without thanks or appreciation.

It is well enough for the public to be reminded of these things from time to time, that they may not forget the work which the journalist does without money and without price. If we, as a class, were to claim from public institutions our full share in them according to the work of hand and head which we have expended to build them up, it would be found to be something more than the value of the little reciprocity that is generally conceded.' If other professional men did as much for nothing as editors, they would be more careful how they ask of us labor for their interests without compensation .- Norfolk Day Book.

From Medical gentlemen, Professors of the highest Opthalmic talent in Alexandria. Va., and the Union.

Alexandria, Va , Sept. 16, 1870. It affords much pleasure to state that after a careful examination of the glasses used by Prof. Bernhardt and his peculiar arrangements for dapting them to the improvement of the varied defects and diseases of the human eye, we feel assured that he is a most skillful and accomplished Optician, and we very cordially com-mend him to the confidence of the community. A full supply of FRENCH WINDOW [From Ex-Governor Shorter, of Alabama.] GLASS, of all sizes, from 6x8 for hot beds to Eufaula, Als., April 7, 1870. Dr. M. Bernhardt, Oculist and Optician: My Dear Sir: I beg to express to you the deep sense of obligation I feel for the professional kindness extended to me, by which, with eye sight impaired by years of application and study, I am enabled to write this note with the clearness of vision which I enjoyed in the days of my youth. May your honorable and useful life long be spared, that humanity may enjoy the scientific skill of one so eminently qualified in mind and heart to do good to his fellowmen. With grateful acknowledgments, permit me to

State of South Carolina, Executive Dept. Columbia, June 19, 1867.] Sir: I have made full and satisfactory test of the Spectacles procured from you, and I have the pleasure to say that the glasses are better adapted to my eyes than any I have ever used. The facilities with which you fitted the glass to my eye furnished me conclusive evidence of your thorough experience as an Oculist. Your attainments in your profession entitle you to the confidence, patronage and gratitude of the public. I have the honor to be very respectfully yours, JAMES L. ORR, vours, Governor of South Carolina.

Portsmouth, Va., Dec 1, 1865. Prof. Bernhardt :- 1 owe you a debt of gratitude for the benefit you have rendered me. For many years I have been accustomed to use glasses when reading or writing, and always with pain, more or less, to my eyes. You have relieved me from all inconvenience. I can now read and write for all hours without any pain and can see objects distant and near through the same glasses with clearness and distinctness that I have not experienced since my youth.

This superior Phosphate has now been tested for over five years, on all kinds of crops, by the side of all known Fertilizers, proved equal to the best, and has given all the general satisfaction that could be desired.

For this valuable Fertilizer we only ask a trial side by side with any Fertilizer in the market to attest its superiority.

Every farmer should give it a trial, as the cost will be more than repaid the first year, and its beneficial effects lasting.

For Corn, Oats, Wheat, Rye or Grass, it has no superior. Zell's Phosphate is fine and dry for drilling, and is put up in bags or barrels. Price $60 per ton of 2000 lbs. Send for a circular, and read the certificates of some of the best farmers in Virginia who attest its superiority over all other Fertilizers.

FLUID EXTRACT SOAP BARK-This preparation possesses the remarkable property of neutralizing grease and extracting it from clothing, etc., without injury to either texture or color. The inconvenience of preparing Soap Bark, which has heretofore prevented its use to any great extent, is obviated in this preparation, which it is only necessary to apply to soiled or greasy cloth by means of a small sponge.
